LUCAS NEFF

Duncan

Lucas Neff stars as the voice of Duncan in season two of Disney Branded Television's "Monsters at Work," inspired by the world of Disney and Pixar's Academy Award®-winning "Monsters, Inc."

Neff recently wrapped filming in Pete Berg's "American Primeval" for Netflix. He can be seen starring in "Carol's Second Act" on CBS. His other television credits include Jenji Kohan's Lifetime series "American Princess" and ABC's "Downward Dog."

He is perhaps best known for portraying James "Jimmy" Chance in the FOX sitcom "Raising Hope." Prior to that, Neff gained his first television credit with a role in the series finale of A&E's "The Beast," starring Patrick Swayze. Neff has maintained his links with the theater by writing plays, including "The Last Duck," which was performed at the Jackalope Theatre in Chicago as the final play of the 2011-2012 season and was nominated for a Joseph Jefferson Award for Best Work.
