Today, ABC and Dick Clark Productions announced its spectacular Hollywood lineup for "Dick Clark's New Year's Rockin' Eve with Ryan Seacrest 2024," the nation's most-watched New Year's Eve celebration. Emmy® Award-winning television personality Jeannie Mai will lead the Hollywood festivities, which will feature a chart-topping roster of artists: Aqua, Doechii, Ellie Goulding, Green Day, Janelle Monáe, Loud Luxury x Two Friends with Bebe Rexha, Ludacris, Nile Rodgers & CHIC, Paul Russell, René Rapp with Coco Jones and Thirty Seconds to Mars. "Dick Clark's New Year's Rockin' Eve with Ryan Seacrest 2024" will air Sunday, Dec. 31, live on ABC beginning at 8:00 p.m. EST.

Performer Highlights:

- Danish dance-pop group Aqua is set to perform hits "Barbie Girl" and "Doctor Jones," both from the three-time certified platinum 1997 album "Aquarium." This year, Aqua is making waves with nearly 30 million Spotify monthly listeners this summer, two GRAMMY® nods for "Barbie World" with Nicki Minaj and Ice Spice, and their first U.S. tour.
- Honored as this year's Billboard Women in Music Rising Star, multi-award nominated rapper/singer Doechii, who has an impressive 6.5 billion global streams, will perform "What It Is" and "Persuasive."
- Multi-award-winning pop singer Ellie Goulding marks a decade since her first No. 1 hit single "Burn," with a three-song performance that will also include GRAMMY-nominated single "Miracle" and "Midnight Dreams" from her latest album, "Higher Than Heaven."

- One of the biggest bands of all time, Green Day, will be taking the stage ringing in the New Year with three career-spanning sets celebrating a massive year ahead. The six-time Billboard Music Awards and five-time GRAMMY winners will be ripping through “Basket Case” and “Welcome to Paradise” off of their breakout album “Dookie,” which celebrates its 30th anniversary next year, “American Idiot” and “Holiday” from “American Idiot,” which celebrates an anniversary of its own turning 20 in 2024. Plus, they will unveil the live debut of the song “Dilemma” from the Rock & Roll Hall of Famers new album “Saviors” out January 19, 2024, in advance of the East Bay punks headlining stadiums globally throughout next summer.
- Multihyphenate artist Janelle Monáe will perform “Champagne Shit” and “Haute” from her recent GRAMMY-nominated album, “The Age of Pleasure.”
- International touring dance music duo Loud Luxury, acclaimed DJs/producers Two Friends, and GRAMMY-nominated powerhouse Bebe Rexha will perform their chart-topping hit “If Only I.”
- Multiplatinum-selling and multi-award-winning actor/rapper Ludacris will celebrate 10 years since the release of his chart-topping single “Stand Up” with a special performance of the 2003 hit as part of a multisong performance medley. His latest project “Dashing Through The Snow” is now streaming on Disney+.
- Rock & Roll Hall of Fame and Songwriters Hall of Fame inductee and GRAMMY Lifetime Achievement honoree Nile Rodgers (and CHIC) will perform his penned classics “Le Freak,” - the biggest selling single in the history of Atlantic Records - “Get Lucky,” - the Daft Punk classic - as well as “Everybody Dance,” and “Good Times,” which sparked the advent of Hip-Hop, with “Rapper’s Delight”.
- Singer-Rapper Paul Russell will perform his viral smash single “Lil Boo Thang,” which has garnered over 160 million total streams, charted top 10 on Top 40 radio, and No. 1 on iTunes’ Pop Chart.
- Multihyphenate artist Reneé Rapp will perform “Talk Too Much” from her acclaimed debut album Snow Angel as well as “Tummy Hurts” with GRAMMY-nominated R&B sensation Coco Jones. The “Tummy Hurts” Remix ft. Coco Jones is included on the deluxe version of Snow Angel, which was released earlier this Fall on Nov. 17. Next year, Rapp will reprise her Broadway role of Regina George in the upcoming Paramount feature film “Mean Girls” musical movie.
- Platinum selling band Thirty Seconds to Mars will rock the stage with a performance of “The Kill” from their certified double platinum album A Beautiful Lie, plus recent alternative number one song “Stuck” and newest single “Seasons,” from their latest album It’s The End Of The World But It’s A Beautiful Day. The band’s Seasons World Tour 2024 kicks off March 15 in Latin America.

As previously announced:

- In his 19th year as host, Ryan Seacrest will lead the traditional countdown to midnight alongside global superstar Rita Ora live from Times Square.
- The show’s Spanish language countdown will again broadcast from Puerto Rico with multitalented actress, singer and TV presenter Dayanara Torres as co-host. The new year’s bash will take place on the grounds of the Puerto Rico Convention Center at DISTRITO T-Mobile, Puerto Rico’s leading entertainment and nightlife complex.
