'JEOPARDY! MASTERS' RETURNS FOR A THREE-WEEK TOURNAMENT MAY 1 ON ABC, NEXT DAY ON HULU

JEOPARDY! MASTERS

"Jeopardy! Masters" returns for its second annual tournament on ABC beginning May 1 and will showcase the six highest-ranked current "Jeopardy!" contestants playing two action-packed games per hourlong episode. Produced by Sony Pictures Television and hosted by the "GOAT" Ken Jennings, the high-stakes tournament will feature "Jeopardy! Masters" 2023 champion James Holzhauer, returning contestants Matt Amodio and Mattea Roach, and newcomers Yogesh Raut and Victoria Groce. The sixth and final "wildcard" contestant, chosen by "Jeopardy!" producers, is to be revealed at a live "Inside Jeopardy!" event at Hudson Yards in New York City on Friday, April 12. Audiences will follow along as contestants go head-to-head for the ultimate grand prize of $500,000 and the title of "Jeopardy! Masters" Champion.

"Jeopardy! Masters" is executive produced by Michael Davies.

The "Jeopardy! Masters" tournament schedule will be as follows, and all episodes will be available next day on Hulu (subject to change):

Editor's Note: Beginning Wednesday, May 1, "The Conners" will air at its new time, 9:30 p.m. ET/PT, following new episodes of "Abbott Elementary."
