MUSIC, A BICYCLE AND ROSE PETALS ARE CLUES TO CATCH A KILLER
ON AN ALL-NEW '20/20'

'GMA3' Co-Anchor Eva Pilgrim Reports on a Chilling Murder and Courtroom Confession That Shocked a Small South Carolina Town, Friday, May 2, on ABC and Streaming Next Day on Hulu.

In October 2021, Christina Parcell was found stabbed to death in her South Carolina home. When authorities arrived, they found a gruesome scene: Christina's body in a pool of blood with 36 stab wounds and mysterious rose petals strewn throughout the home. Police begin looking for a killer and set their sights on those closest to Christina, including her fiancé and her young daughter's father, with whom she had a contentious custody battle, though both were later found not to be the killer. But when a Ring doorbell camera captures an image of a man riding a bicycle and then entering Christina's home around the time of her murder, it leads them to a courtroom confession that no one saw coming on an all-new episode of "20/20," with "GMA3" co-anchor Eva Pilgrim reporting, FRIDAY, MAY 2 (9:01-11:00 p.m. EDT) on ABC and streaming the next day on Hulu.
