'20/20' PROVIDES NEW INSIGHT ON THE MURDER OF JONBENÉT RAMSEY THROUGH EYES OF LEGENDARY DETECTIVE WHO DEDICATED HIS LIFE TO SUBSTANTIATING THE RAMSEY FAMILY'S INNOCENCE

'20/20' Airs Friday, Jan. 15 (9:01–11:00 p.m. EST), on ABC

Who killed JonBenét Ramsey? Over 24 years later, authorities are still trying to answer that question. A new episode of "20/20" provides new insight into the murder and showcases the exclusive network premiere of the video diaries of legendary detective Lou Smit, who was brought out of retirement to investigate the murder of the child beauty queen. Initially hired by the prosecution, Smit quit the case when his investigation convinced him that an outside intruder was responsible. Smit then dedicated his life to proving the Ramsey family's innocence. On his deathbed, he requested his children and grandchildren keep his search for the killer alive. In Smit's video diaries, he reveals his theories about what happened the night JonBenét died and his belief that DNA will ultimately expose the killer. Along with reporting by "20/20" co-anchor Amy Robach, the two-hour program includes interviews with Lexi Marra and Jessa Van Der Woerd, Smit's granddaughters and hosts of the podcast "The Victim's Shoes," on JonBenét's death. They open up to "20/20" about the list of potential suspects he left behind, his confidence that one of the names on the list is JonBenét's killer and how they've made it their family's mission to carry on their grandfather's legacy by trying to solve the case. "20/20" also features a new interview with John Andrew Ramsey, JonBenét's half-brother, and archival interviews with the Ramsey family, detectives and more. "20/20" airs Friday, Jan. 15 (9:01–11:00 p.m. EST), on ABC.
