“1906” – Gabby and Rachel’s journeys to find love continue in the charming canals and tulip fields of Amsterdam. With hometowns right around the corner, the Bachelorettes select two lucky guys for their most important one-on-one dates yet. As they figure out which relationships should be taken to the next level, Gabby encourages her men to step out of their comfort zones in the Red Light District, while Rachel challenges her men to demonstrate the strength of their love in a cheesy weightlifting competition. Later, before heading off the ship to meet with families, Gabby and Rachel are tasked with making tough decisions at the rose ceremony with many uncertainties still in the air. “The Bachelorette” airs MONDAY, AUG. 15 (8:00-10:01 p.m. EDT) on ABC. (TV-14, DL) Watch episodes on demand and on Hulu the day following their premieres.
