HIGHLIGHTS FOR 'TAMRON HALL,' WEEK OF MAY 30-JUNE 3

'Tamron Hall' Tackles Today's Meaningful and Important Topics – So Let's Talk About It

Following are highlights for "Tamron Hall" for the week of May 30, 2022. Please note: Lineup is subject to change.

Monday, May 30: Mission possible: incredible real-life stories, including a man whose search for his birth mother led to a miraculous gift of new life; luxury fashion designer Aurora James' pledge to increase retail opportunities for Black-owned businesses; and a woman motivated to find stories of human kindness in all 50 states.

Tuesday, May 31: Actress Donna Mills on becoming a mom later in life after a successful career, and her role in the new Jordan Peele summer thriller, "Nope." Plus, author Cindy House discusses being honest with your kids about past mistakes; a candid conversation about motherhood; and parenting survival tips from expert and author Ericka Souter.

Wednesday, June 1: GRAMMY®-nominated singer and actor Luke James talks about pushing past fears and starring in "The Chi." Plus, when preparation meets opportunity: meet 18-year-old high school student Kai Neukermans who filled in for Pearl Jam drummer Matt Cameron after receiving an urgent life-changing text. -

Thursday, June 2: An exclusive with Susan Altman who is breaking her silence about her sister's husband being convicted of murder seven years after her death. Plus, everyday heroes, including a Florida highway patrol officer who put herself in harm's way to save a bridge full of runners; a third-grade teacher who saved a student; and a 5-year-old child whose call to 911 saved his mom's life.

Friday, June 3: A special "Proud of Me" episode celebrating the journey of people becoming who they were always meant to be. Featuring actor Colton Haynes sharing details on his path to sobriety and redemption in his new book, "Miss Memory Lane: A Memoir," and a special performance by Sammy Rae & The Friends.

"Tamron Hall" is produced by ABC News and is distributed in national syndication by Disney Media & Entertainment Distribution. The show is executive produced by Hall and Quiana Burns. The show broadcasts from New York City and features a dynamic mix of live and taped shows.
