

BERTIE GREGORY

Director of Photography, Producer, National Geographic Explorer

Bertie Gregory is a British wildlife filmmaker, environmentalist and National Geographic Explorer. His career began when a childhood nature obsession earned him the title of Youth Outdoor Photographer of the Year. After completing a degree in zoology, he began assisting legendary National Geographic photographer Steve Winter. He has since produced and hosted nine National Geographic television projects, including the original series EPIC ADVENTURES streaming on Disney+. His newest multiple Emmy® Award-winning series ANIMALS UP CLOSE is also currently streaming on Disney+. In 2020, he became BAFTA's youngest cinematography winner for his work with Sir David Attenborough on the BBC's "Seven Worlds," "Frozen Planet 2" and "Planet Earth 3" series. In 2023, PEOPLE Magazine included Bertie in their annual "Sexiest Man Alive" issue for the sexiest at age 30.

Bertie recently led the newest installment of the Emmy Award-winning SECRETS OF... franchise, SECRETS OF THE PENGUINS, now streaming on Disney+ and Hulu.