

Dec. 7, 2021

“1308” – Holiday cheer heads into the Tank when an entrepreneur from Charlotte, North Carolina, shows how her hobby turned lucrative business is committed to bringing smiles into every home with her magical designs. A family of entrepreneurs from Shelton, Connecticut, return to the Tank for another shot at a deal with a product designed to keep your most precious ornaments safe and secure during the holiday season. An Elf from Chicago, Illinois, hopes to spread joy through his personalized digital business; while a husband and wife duo from Wallingford, Connecticut, are committed to making spirits bright with their magical product aimed at helping children communicate with the North Pole, on a special holiday episode of “Shark Tank” airing FRIDAY, DEC. 10 (8:00-9:01 p.m. EST), on ABC. (TV-PG) Watch episodes on demand and on Hulu the day following the premiere.

In a “Shark Tank” update, cousins Kristy Moore, Jennifer Couch and Amberly Hall from Houston, Texas, update their investors Mark Cuban and Barbara Corcoran about Holibal, and how their giant inflatable ornaments are doing during the most wonderful time of the year.

The Sharks in this episode are Mark Cuban, Barbara Corcoran, Kevin O’Leary, Lori Greiner and Daymond John.

-- ABC --