'Bad Romance,' the eight-episode limited true-crime series from ABC News' "20/20," features "Death at the Door," the story of Rhoni Reuter, the girlfriend of Chicago Bears defensive linebacker Shaun Gayle. When Rhoni, pregnant with her first child, is found murdered on the kitchen floor of her apartment, shot multiple times at point-blank range, police begin looking for the killer. When Rhoni's NFL boyfriend learns about the murder, he calls the local police station within hours of the shooting.

Gayle shares with investigators that he was involved with several women during the time of his relationship with Rhoni, including Marni Yang, a single mother of three children, leading authorities to wonder if jealousy could be a motive to kill. Yang eventually confesses to the killing during a wired conversation with a friend but later claims she was just spinning a tale. Evidence of numerous harassing letters, computer hacking, surveillance video, and ballistics led authorities to the culprit.

The episode features JuJu Chang's jailhouse interview with Yang, in which she still claims she is innocent of the murder even while serving a double life sentence.
