

June 29, 2021

"1705" – Fourteen remaining suitors are ready to finally put the drama behind them and focus on getting quality time with Katie, until Tayshia stops by to drop the bomb that there are actually 15 men hoping to capture Katie's heart and Blake will be joining them in the house. Later on the massive group date, Bachelor Nation favorites Wells Adams and Franco stop by to introduce and commentate on an intense game of America's hottest new sport – Bash Ball; but when more than egos end up getting bruised, Katie steps in and stands up for her guys, ending the game early and giving everyone the attention they deserve. Later, Katie and Andrew S. have an important conversation about their future and one guy gets greedy with Katie's time. At the end of the night, a rose ceremony will bring Katie one step closer to hopefully finding her match on an all-new "The Bachelorette," MONDAY, JULY 5 (8:00-10:00 p.m. EDT), on ABC. (TV-14, DL) Episodes can be viewed the next day on demand and on Hulu.

The 15 men who will vie for Katie's heart are the following:

- Aaron, 26, an insurance agent from San Diego, Calif.
- Andrew M., 31, a deputy district attorney from Newport Beach, Calif.
- Andrew S., 26, a pro football player from Vienna, Austria
- Blake, 30, a wildlife manager from Hamilton, Ontario, Canada
- Brendan, 26, a firefighter trainee from Toronto, Ontario, Canada
- Connor B., 29, a math teacher from Nashville, Tenn.
- Greg, 27, a marketing sales rep from Edison, N.J.
- Hunter, 34, a software strategist from Houston, Texas
- James, 30, a software salesman from La Jolla, Calif.
- Josh, 25, an IT consultant from Miami, Fla.
- Justin, 26, an investment sales consultant from Baltimore, Md.
- Michael, 36, a business owner from Akron, Ohio
- Mike, 31, a gym owner from San Diego, Calif.
- Quartney, 26, a nutrition entrepreneur from Dallas, Texas
- Tre, 26, a software engineer from Covington, Ga.

-- ABC --